

Evilution

Dio

Good night, we're closing again
Come back, we're open tomorrow
We've finished today
I'm just staying away
We know what's good for the brain Oh, plastic dreams and fast machines
Pushing it to the limit
Girls and boys who think that noise
Is music in the air Twisted felon, stay awhile
Here's your invitation
Dirty rags and body bags
Evilution Hello, we're open once more
Come in, you need no appointment
We're thinking in time
That you'll move down the line
And represent the business in hell
Well, well Tell her hope is gone but you carry on
We can set the soul free
All is lost so what's it costs
To listen anyway The world upstairs where no-one cares
Is just about to crumble
See it through we'll burn for you
Evolution company Oh, neon names play neon games
Showing it to the public
I hate you and you hate me
And everybody smiles So money talks and no-one walks
But everybody's crawling
Golden rags and body bags
Evolution Hello, good night, it's me
I'm open again
Come back, come in, good bye
We're closed
