Maidens Of Venus

Fireball Ministry

overblown state of mind changes made for a lie seen as true judged fairly for a crime given up on a life spent with you fourtunes speant from behind broken image of a mind rusted, begging, towed the line only witness to a life speant with younow i'm giving up on lies worth believing and i'm giving up my mind, yeah stolen years from a life not worth living and i'm running out of timebeen called unforgiving secrets passed on a line broken through and belived all the sinning given up on a life spent with younow i'm giving up on lies worth believing
and i'm running out of timenow i'm giving up on lies worth believing and i'm giving up my mind, yeah
well it happens all the time
