

As I See You

Dark Side Cowboys

This nothing
Not at all the same
As I see you
I realise
That you never can feel
That your senses don't
Pick up the sound of my cry
This my cry
Always the same
As I see you
But when your gone
It vanishes into silence
When you are elsewhere
This my cry
Falling down
Don't frighten me
As I speak to you
I realise
That falling ain't dangerous
It's hitting the ground that scares me
You're always
Breaking me apart
As I look at you
Through the looking glass
I can watch your eyes
As they stear back
And I shrink back in pain
