This Man And This Woman

David Tribble

Do you take this woman,
To have and to hold, from this day forth
Do you take this man,
Till death do you part

But are these words enough
Will they stand alone.

We have to love we have to try,
We have to put up a real good fight.
We have to be strong, canâ€™t take the day off
No matter whatâ€™s going wrong.
One plus one equals one,
With this man and this woman

Do you hear that song, telling how we felt all along,
A love song for us and how you mean so much.

But are the words enough,
Will they stand alone.

We have to love we have to try,
We have to put up a real good fight.
We have to be strong, canâ€™t take the day off
No matter whatâ€™s going wrong.
One plus one equals one,
With this man and this woman

I kiss your lips and off we go
To a new life, your hand to hold
Down the sidewalk, saying goodbye
Climbing into that car, side by side.

We have to love we have to try,
We have to put up a real good fight.
We have to be strong, canâ€™t take the day off
With God on our side.

One plus one equals one,
One plus one equals one,

One plus one equals one
With this man and this woman.
