God-Fearing

Sarah Blasko

You've got a nerve, you know you make me hate
One thing I'd love you try to take away
I'm not beaten down, I won't behave
Just listen this once or you will rue this dayYou have no respect
For me tonight if you're not listening
It might be unkind but it might be right
That you're not listeningSet them up, knock them down
Cast them left, cast them right
God-fearing tonightBiting my lip and holding my tongue
Was the most stupid thing that I've ever done
Got carried away, let myself down
I'll shoulder that blame if you'll admit what you've doneYou have no respect
For me tonight if you're not listening
It might be unkind but it might be right
That you're not listeningSet them up, knock them down
God-fearing tonight
