

I Won't Let You Lead Me Down

Steve Azar

i'm gonna turn myself around pull a full blown smile from a bottomless frown no i won't let you lead me down i can't believe that you took me this low and i bet you think i can't let go you loved me so bad and you hurt me so slow if i have to crawl my way on outta this hole you better know

i'm gonna turn myself around
pull a full blown smile from a bottomless frown

you got a cool dark heart and a velvet touch fine silk tongue that can lie so rough burned a valley of pain straight through my trust next time you wanna drive me wrong i'll be gone' long gone' oh cut the chains, flyin' free on my way back to how i used to be won't look at me' hey won't you look at me chorus

i'm gonna turn myself around pull a full blown smile from a bottomless frown' no

repeat chorus x3

i won't let you lead me down
