Try It Again

Jeffrey Lewis

Looking for friends and you try it again
But all of the signs just say you're wasting your time
You know you're not perfect
But you know you're not worthless
All the people walk past
And they're talking so fast
But you try it again and you try it again
Try it again until you feel so low
Try it again and you try it again
Try it again because it can't be so
It can't be so hard
But it's a world that's unfair, look at that lady there
Not a dime in her hands, not a ghost of a chance
Got a room to myself, i've got my art and my health
This loneliness in my guts must just mean that i'm nuts
So I try it again and I try it again
Try it again until I feel so low
Try it again and I try it again
Try it again because it can't be so
It can't be so hard
Looking for love but we're round and above
But it's all just a lark, just a guess in the dark
But if we don't change our ways then I guess it all stays
All we need is a touch but we need it so much
So we try it again and we try it again
Try it again until we feel so low
Try it again and we try it again
Try it again because it can't be so
It can't be so hard
