Share My World

DeBarge

Ooh, la-la-la
Won't you share my world
Ooh, won't you share my world
Won't you share my worldDon't just stand around and say
I've made your life complete
And how I make you feel each day
Whenever our lips meetYou say you really love me so
Don't hesitate
To come and share my world
Please won't you share itI gave you all the love I had
And gladly give you more
Love has found a way for us
To walk right through the doorAnd everlasting love
That's made for you and me
And it's reality
Can't you seeYou've placed a seed love in me
And made it grow each day
And now it blooms a fruit of love for you
And if you really love me, yes, the way that I love you
Won't you please share my worldI want you
I need you to share my world
Share my world
Life can be so beautifulI want you
I need you to share my world
Share my world
Baby, baby, won't you share my world, worldThe sun puts on a smile for two
Every time we meet
And all that life has brought us through
It never will compete
With all the happiness we share together
If you share my world
Please won't you share my world
Please won't you share my worldI love you
I need you to share my world (Share my world)
Share my world
Life can be so beautiful (Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh)I want you (I want you)
I need you to share my world (I need you in my life)
Share my world (To share my world)
Life can be so beautiful (Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh)I want you

I need you to share my world {Won't you share my world}
Share my world {Share}
Baby, baby, won't you share my world'Cause in my heart (In my heart)
You play a very, very, very big part
So won't you share my world (I must share your world, baby)
Share it, share it, share itShare, share
Share my world, babe
Woo...ooh... (Mmm...hmm...)I want you (Want you)
Need you (Need you)
Got to have you (Got to have you, baby)
Got to have you, baby (Oh...ho...oh...)Be with me
Be by my side
Oh, baby, I want you in my life
Whoa, share my worldShare my world (Share my world)
Share my world (Share my world)
Share my world (Whoa)
Share my world (Oh...yeah...), oh...oh...oh...I want you
I need you to share my world
Share my world
Life can be so beautifulI want you
I need you to share my world
Share my world
