

Wine & Whiskey

Andy Ferguson

See i've got all the love in the world, for a girl i've yet to meet, for a girl i've yet to meet
I'm just dreaming for someone like you, i could sweep off her feet, ill sweep you off your feet.
And for as long, as i can remember, i've been waiting with this tune, i'm waiting here for you.
But i know, these days aren't wasted, i've been saving them for you, saving me for you.*Chorus 1

So ill be, by myself tonight. drinking wine instead of whiskey

Wishing you were with me, you're here in my mind and ill be, by myself tonight, drinking wine instead of whiskey oh you could be here with me, id be holding you tight.Verse 2 tonight you'll come and see me play, this time you'll hear my voice, i could steal you far away.

our eyes connect across this room, i can feel you now, and you feel me too

you hand me some Tennessee, and your drinking from the vine, you were always more refined.

our hearts give way through warm embrace, and everything is possible, with that smile upon your face.Chorus 2 and its just you and me tonight, you're drinking wine, im drinking whiskey, and you're finally here with me, im holding you tight.

oh its just you and me tonight, you're drinking wine im drinking whiskey

i dont care where were heading, as long as your here with meBridge*

i hear the waitress cry out, last call. looks like im alone again tonight, still at the place you walked out, in that bar, but i know ill be alright.Chorus 3

And im just by myself tonight, drinking wine instead of whiskey wishing you hadn't left me, id be holding you tight, and im just by myself tonight, drinking wine instead of whiskey

and im lonely and im sifting through the ashes of my lifeOutro see i've got all the love in the world, for a girl i've yet to meet, for a girl ive yet to meet.

now i don't mind too much waiting,

its all i ever seem to do, are you waiting for me too.
