

Scorching Breath

Atrocity

[Incomprehensible] flames of fire, destroying the world's illusion

 Your own created nightmare stabs you to death

 Listen to your hypocrisy, your everlasting false belief

Holy ground, a holy grave, divine fate by divine graceDeathly pallor, funeral cortege

 Mass extermination, the scorching breath

 Greedy death mask, creeping barrage

 Deadly termination, the scorching breath

 The scorching breathWar-demons, demolition

 Deep down from the infernal regions

 Your dreams of dread

Will take you soon to the deadDeathly pallor, funeral cortege

 Mass extermination, the scorching breath

 Greedy death mask, creeping barrage

Deadly termination, the scorching breath, yeahFrom pride to the fall, the way is very short

 The scorching breath takes the world apart, yeahDeathly pallor, funeral cortege

 Mass extermination, the scorching breath

 Greedy death mask, creeping barrage

Deadly termination, the scorching breathNaked skeletons piled up like stacked wood

 Iced sea of depression numbed with cold and fear

 Awaiting fatal destiny with disillusioned disbelief

Holy ground, a holy grave, divine fate by divine graceWar-demons, demolition

 Deep down from the infernal regions

 Your dreams of dread

Will take you soon to the deadDeathly pallor, funeral cortege

 Mass extermination, the scorching breath
