

Legendary

The Summer Set

"Legendary"

When I was a kid, I'd fly around and Peter would mention
Don't be afraid to die, 'cause to die would be an awfully big adventure
One day I stopped believing, now my friends say they're so bored of me
I used to be a real boy with real plans, now I'm just reality TV

I used to be your knight in shining armor, and I'd rescue you from hell
Lately I stare into the mirror, and I say to myself,

I've spent too many nights watching 'How I Met Your Mother' alone
Now I'm searching for my yellow umbrella, hoping I'll take her home
Maybe I just wanna be legendary
Yeah we all just wanna be legendary, oh

I'm done chasing actresses, I'm full of love, and they're all full of shit
Now I'm stumbling out the bar. One more fame-monster story, I'll be sick
One day I stopped believing, and all at once the magic had died
I just need to accept, friends grow up and lovers will lie

Oh, I used to be James Dean, now it's celebrity rehab hell
I swear that I could be amazing, I just need a little help

I've spent too many nights watching 'How I Met Your Mother' alone
Now I'm searching for my yellow umbrella, hoping I'll take her home
Maybe I just wanna be legendary
Yeah we all just wanna be legendary, oh

Da-da-da-la-la-la-la

Da-da-da-la-la-la-la

Da-da-da-la-la-la-la

Da-da-da-la-la-la-la

Da-da-da-la-la-la-la

(Used to be your knight in shining armor, and I'd rescue you from hell,
I swear that I could be amazing, I just need a little help)

I was your knight in shining armor, and I'd rescue you from hell
I swear that I could be amazing

I've spent too many nights watching 'How I Met Your Mother' alone
Now I'm searching for my yellow umbrella, hoping I'll take her home
Maybe I just wanna be legendary
Yeah we all wanna be legendary to somebody
Yeah to somebody, oh, oh.
