

There Are Angels, Angelina

Isabella Cole

A young girl is fighting
Against all odds
She barely remembers
The child she was

Cause more and more her days are pain and fear
And mom and dad stand faithful and whisper in her ear

There are angels Angelina
They're praying for you now
They're asking for a miracle
If you can just hold out
They're ordinary people just like us
There are angels Angelina don't give up

Sometimes when the sun shines
The rain won't stop
The prayers go unanswered
Or maybe not

Cause as she lingers no one else can know
A voice has come from heaven to softly touch her soul

There are angels Angelina
I've sent them there to be
With you so when you're ready
They'll bring you home to me
So do not be afraid of breaking through
There are angels Angelina holding you

And the sun breaks through the storm subsides
As she travels time and space
And when she opens up her eyes
He tells her face to face

You're an angel Angelina
You'll never hurt again
So run and play laugh time away
And hover in the wind
And as she twirls around the choir sings

You're an angel Angelina
Your faith has earned your wings

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>