

Sun Above the Clouds

Sam Bailey

Walk with my head held up,
Got my eyes open wide
I just stare
Sit on a grey backdrop
My problems magnified
I'm laid bareWanna feel right,
Know that I'm alive
Know I will in time
It's in the air, yeah
Feel it in my heart
And every other part
I will see it shine
No, just not yetThe higher I am, the taller I stand
The more I can see the sun above the clouds
The less I look back, the clearer the track
The more I can see the sun above the clouds
There's nothing I can do
If I see the sun above the clouds
It's hard but I see through itWhen I fill my eyes well up
My confidence is gone, going no where
I soak up every drop, work out where I went wrong
And I swear
Wanna feel right,
Know that I'm alive
Know I will in time
It's in the air, air
Feel it in my heart
And every other part
I will see it shine
No, just not yetThe higher I am, the taller I stand
The more I can see the sun above the clouds
The less I look back, the clearer the track
The more I can see the sun above the clouds
There's nothing I can do
If I see the sun above the clouds
It's hard but I see through itThere's got to be more waiting out of sight
I don't want to live an ordinary life, no
I've tasted enough to feed my appetite
That's when I knowThe higher I am, the taller I stand

The more I can see the sun above the clouds
The less I look back, the clearer the track
The more I can see the sun above the cloudsThe higher I am, the taller I stand
The more I can see the sun above the clouds
The less I look back, the clearer the track
The more I can see the sun above the clouds
There's nothing I can do
If I see the sun above the clouds
It's hard but I see through it
