

Empty Garden (Hey Hey Johnny)

Elton John

What happened here
As the New York sunset disappeared
I found an empty garden among the flagstones there Who lived here
He must have been a gardener that cared a lot
Who weeded out the tears and grew a good crop And now it all looks strange
It's funny how one insect can damage so much grain And what's it for
This little empty garden by the brownstone door
And in the cracks along the sidewalk nothing grows no more Who lived here
He must have been a gardener that cared a lot
Who weeded out the tears and grew a good crop And we are so amazed, we're crippled and we're dazed
A gardener like that one, no one can replace And I've been knocking
But no one answers
And I've been knocking
Most all the day Oh, and I've been calling
Oh, hey hey Johnny
Can't you come out to play And through their tears
Some say he farmed his best in younger years
But he'd have said that roots grow stronger if only he could hear Who lived there
He must have been a gardener that cared a lot
Who weeded out the tears and grew a good crop Now we pray for rain and with every drop that falls
We hear, we hear your name And I've been knocking
But no one answers
And I've been knocking
Most all the day Oh, and I've been calling
Oh, hey hey Johnny
Can't you come out to play And I've been knocking
But no one answers
And I've been knocking
Most all the day Oh, and I've been calling
Oh, hey hey Johnny
Can't you come out, can't you come out to play Johnny, can't you come out to play in your empty garden
Johnny, can't you come out to play in your empty garden
Johnny, can't you come out to play in your empty garden
