

Unravelling

Melanie C

Since I met you I've been unravelling questioning everything I say or do all of these words don't mean anything nothing means anything when I'm not with you and the strength that I held in the palm of my hand is slipping and the sense that I have slowly is melting away you rocked my world made me forget myself I started to learn how I could be somebody else discovered the girl I thought I could never be now I am hurt, you're leaving for somebody else, oh I'm not a fool, though I behave like one can't help it, I've come undone too late to turn back the strength that I held in the grip of my hand is slipping and the sense that I had almost has melted away you rocked my world
made me forget myself
I started to learn how I could be somebody else discovered the girl I thought I could never be now I am hurt, you're leaving for somebody else I fell in blindly but love still denies me I wasn't ready for losing control, oh no we played by the same rules you did what you had to whatever your reasons I have to let go but you rocked my world
