

Someday Soon

Angela Ammons

You wiped away my tears
And asked me for a smile
I pretended to for a while
I said I'd do anything
To always be with you
You promised me someday soon
But it could never be too soon
And I, I always feel you near me
Tell me you can hear me
'Cause, baby, I still hear you, ohh
And I know that nothing lasts forever
And, baby, I will never, ever
Leave this feeling of loving you
When I hear your voice
I swear I hear you breathe
Your body next to mine
Holding me
And just when I believed
It never has to end
Goodbye will never come again
Ohh, but it always comes again
But it could never be too soon
And I, I always feel you near me
Tell me you can hear me
'Cause, baby, I still hear you, ohh
And I know that nothing lasts forever
And, baby, I will never, ever
Leave this feeling of loving you
Baby, I have faith that someday
Destiny will take its place
If I could just hold on, to someday
Soon
But it could never be too soon
And I, I always feel you near me
Tell me you can hear me
'Cause, baby, I still hear you, ohh
And I know that nothing lasts forever
And, baby, I will never, ever
Leave this feeling of loving you
