

Ready For Combat

Krayzie Bone

I bring yo' thugline
Don't they want to see me fall?
That I never have 'em and I'm just to wrong Used to have a lot of Devil scenes
When I kept my soul, they see me disappear
And now, the cryin' on the line is perfect time
And tryin' to shine and keep my mind ready for combat
