Raised Fist

Are you wasting your time taking care of everyone just to be nice.

It's time to turn into the average guy stupid and selfish and mean to everyone.

I'm wasting my time being nice feels just like disguise

To truly forgive your next takes a lot more than reading this text. Be numb and dumb and nothing but a bum and at least you'll survive in this world of hate. How shall we act curse at unknown and hug our friends

It's time to realize that war starts where friendship ends. Remember that it takes two to make a fight

And if you continue to argue doesn't mean your right.

Why is it so important for you to show your anger

You don't have to finish everything in a second.
