

She's a Heartbreaker

ZZ Top

She used to drive a beat up pickup
Down around San Antone
Stealin' the heart of every guy in town
Includin' the one I own But this sweet young thing of seventeen
Would sting you with the lovesick blues
Just a blonde haired blue eyed picture of sin
Lookin' for someone to use She's a lover 'n fighter, she's a wild bull rider
And I'm wonderin' why she left me such a long time ago
She's a heartbreaker, she's a love taker
But she can break a heart and take all the love she needs Ooh well I heard she got down in beaumont
And she wound up in El Paso
She was tuff as a boot and thin as a rail
And she could step to the cotton eyed joe If you run across this flagrant fuzzy
I slip in and I get her while you can
'Cause far too long she'll be good as gone
And runnin' with another man She's a lover 'n fighter, she's a wild bull rider
And I'm wonderin' why she left me such a long time ago
And she's a heartbreaker, she's a love taker
She can break a heart and take all the love she needs She's a heartbreaker, she's a love taker
Well she can break a heart and take all the love she needs
