All I'll Ever Need

Point of Grace

Some days I'm fragile, some days I'm stronger
Sometimes I just want to run
But Your tender mercies gently pursue me
When all is said and doneWhere else would I go
Who else could there be
No one but You, Lord, can see
Can see all of me, ohYou opened my eyes
Oh, how I believe
In everything You are 'cause You are
All I'll ever needMy heart's full of questions, the future's uncertain
But I'm gonna stand on what's true
'Cause I have discovered a love like no other
The love I've found in YouWhere else would I go
Who else could there be
No one but You, Lord, can see
Can see all of me, ohYou opened my eyes
Oh, how I believe
In everything You are 'cause You are
All I'll ever needWhere else would I go
Who else could there be
No one but You, Lord, can see
Can see all of me, ohYou opened my eyes
Oh, how I believe
In everything You are 'cause You are
All I'll ever needIn everything You are 'cause You are
All I'll ever needAll I'll ever, all I'll ever need
