Lonesome Highways

AP Mauro

Sunrise here in Birmingham, I shift into low gear, ease to the road

One thousand miles to go

Iâ€™ve come to call these lonesome highways home

Never owned a suit or tie, â€™cause hauling freight on wheels is what I know

And miles and miles of road

Iâ€™ve come to call these lonesome highways home

When Tuscaloosa comes into view, Iâ€™ll want to turn this rig around, and head straight back to you

Jacksonâ€™s got some danger zones, while Shreveportâ€™s got the rain and hot winds blow round most of El Paso

Iâ€™ve come to call these lonesome highways home

When Tuscaloosa comes into view, Iâ€™ll want to turn this rig around, and head straight back to you

When fatigue takes over me, Iâ€™ll find a crowded a stop, pull off the road

Bunk out my time then go

Iâ€™ve come to call these lonesome highways home
