It's Your World

Lil' Mo

Back in the day my momma used to tell me
Girl you gotta stand for something
Don?t fall for nothing not even a piece of God loving
And she would always say
Always be a leader, a giver and not a receiver
A dreamer as well a believer never a loser
Reach your dream, someone might try and sell me
It feels so good to hear her tell me
It?s your world baby girl, you can have anything
Anything that you need, all your hearts desires
Just believe in your dreams, not as hard as it seams
You can be anything 'cause it?s your world
Now that I'm grown, I teach these young girls a lesson
Good morals over power over pressure, don?t set up for lesser
Oh, will people try and stress ya, thought they talk about
They will respect you
Strive for perfection and keep your head to the sky
Even thought you want to be down never ever follow
Always make them follow the leader
Yo momma won?t tell you but Lil' Mo will
It?s your world baby girl, you can have anything
Anything that you need, all your hearts desires
Just believe in your dreams, not as hard as it seams
You can be anything 'cause it?s your world
It?s your world baby girl, you can have anything
Anything that you need, all your hearts desires
Just believe in your dreams, not as hard as it seams
You can be anything 'cause it?s your world
Girl, you can have anything
From a mountain high to valley low
The sky is the limit, all you can have and more
As long as you reach for it it?s yours
It?s your world baby girl, you can have anything
Anything that you need, all your hearts desires
Just believe in your dreams, not as hard as it seams
You can be anything 'cause it?s your world
It?s your world baby girl, you can have anything
Anything that you need, all your hearts desires
Just believe in your dreams, not as hard as it seams

You can be anything 'cause it?s your world
It?s your world baby girl, you can have anything
Anything that you need, all your hearts desires
Just believe in your dreams, not as hard as it seams
You can be anything 'cause it?s your world
I'm a believer and I'm a leader
It?s your world baby girl, you can have anything
Anything that you need, all your hearts desires
