

My Broken Heart

Celso Fonseca

Alone
Under the stars
Along with my guitar
I'm about to give
All that love can take
From you
My broken heart

Don't tell too many lies
Don't blame the moon
And please don't cry
I'm about to take
All that love can give
Steal from you
My broken heart

I only see blue moons
When I should see your eyes
It's for you the song
From my broken heart
I sing along
Under the stars
