

Surprise

Luscious Jackson

Big surprise, surprise, look into your mother's eyes

I go where no man goes

One particular roll in the hay happened one day

It only takes one to get it done

Surprise

Afraid of the sheer volume, I've concentrated all

You can swallow me or shoot me on the wall

Afraid of failure, I come as I please

One drop is the name of my disease

Surprise

I might be criminal minded

But I don't wear no colors

I got my time behind me

I need a place to rest my eyes

Surprise

Wunderkind of mine, tiny piece of a line

We come together like roses on a vine

Beat a few friends or get beaten

Ain't no harmony in the seed of men

Surprise
