I Can Read Your Heart

Aaron Lines

Well, I don't claim to know everything
But some things aren't hard to figure out
I can tell your love for me has been fading
And I know what you want to talk about'Cause I can read your heart
It wants to say goodbye
I can read your heart like an open book
It's written in your armsThey no longer hold me tight
And what you're about to say
Is tearing me apart
So don't start, baby, I can read your heartI felt it skip a beat on the night we met
Moving cautiously at first then letting go
Yeah, with each passing day, I turn another page
So there ain't much I don't already know'Cause I can read your heart
It wants to say goodbye
I can read your heart like an open book
It's written in your armsThey no longer hold me tight
And what you're about to say
Is tearing me apart
So don't start, baby, I can read your heartWell, I knew this day was coming
It was there between the lines
Still I was hoping maybe I could change your mind
But that's not gonna happenNo way upon this earth
So just kiss me on last time
But don't say a word'Cause I can read your heart
It wants to say goodbye
I can read your heart like an open book
It's written in your armsThey no longer hold me tight
And what you're about to say
Is tearing me apart
So don't start, baby, I can read your heartSo don't start, baby, I can read your heart
I can read your heart
