

I Ain't Gonna Lead This Life No More

Dean Martin

(Wella, wella, wella, wella, wella,)Well the coffee's too weak

Ant the steak is too strong

And I got an idea

I've been single too long, too long, too long

Wella, wella, wella the coffee's too weak, steak is too strong

Got an idea I been single too long

I ain't gonna lead this life no more

Sweet Jean

I ain't gonna lead this life no moreWell I'm washing my shirts

And mending my socks

And the hotel bed

Is stuffed with rocks, them rocks, them rocks

Wella, wella, wella, I'm washing my shirts

Mending my socks

The hotel bed is stuffed with rocks

I ain't gonna lead this life no more

Sweet Jean

I ain't gonna lead this life no moreWell a beautiful gal

Makes a beautiful bride

We'll be leaving that church

Marching side by side by side by side

Wella wella wella beautiful gal

Beautiful bride

Leaving that church side by side

I ain't gonna lead this life no more, Sweet Jean

Ain't gonna lead this life no more
