Sam Ock

i wish i could say that i'm an honest human being that what you're really seeing is the truthbut times go and change i really don't know what i'm feeling the one thing that i know is that i'm with youi know there's pain 'cause life, it aint so easy and people go and leave you all aloneand i can't complain i've been blessed with many things and in the end i know that i'll be home, i'll go home*let the bad times roll 'cause I'm with you and you're with me
let the bad times roll
'cause we're together and that's all that matters to meand i got to say fellowship in pain is a kind that never fades away which is why i don't fight it, i let it come the peace i receive when it's over is a different one for the lack of better words, it's "intimate" a bad time will show me all my pride and it'll murder it you've heard of it, right? the sound of a soul cry so much louder when there's someone else by its side so my brothers and my sisters when you see it coming the wave of pain, stand firm, stop your running i think we all agree that it can't be stopped but if we all hold our breath than how can we not share in this connection, this empathy so much stronger than our good times through anything personally, i think that it's a better day when the light shines and i see the darkness run away*(synth solo)sometimes they say about the things you're keepin you don't know what you got until it's gonebut i'm here to stay of course until i'm leaving 'til life, it calls it quits and then i falli know there's a way to eternity in heaven for i will say that jesus is my trutha smile on my face yes, that's what i'll be keeping when all is through, i'll come home back to you i'll come home back to you!!
