Kairos!

In the Woods...

The moment that your senses play a part
- when all of them caress a new impression Somewhere deep within your heart like qualities of permanent obsessionCan you conquer your emotional delay can you draw tomorrow's history today can you feel the tide is turning can you overcome the yearning
- or will you blindly obey?Break through-embrace the light of Kairos!Behaving unwillingly like a recording machine
All these emotional standards reduced to leftovers of a dream Is everything just like it seemed to be moments ago who am I, where have I been, and how will I know?Have you ever had a date with an oracle that told you some of her secrets?
The only breed in the following term;
- share them with reasoning creatures...what if, and you won't know anything about it before you do-if you have...
