Fire

Michael Johns

Well i went down to the water but i never quite got clean so i took a train to st. louis just to see what other people seen i tried to fight the power but i never seem to win i been down a long time but i'll be coming back againcause i got fire, fire, fire shot up in my bones.
i got fire, fire, fire
shot up in my bones.
now there's a feast upon my table and i got polish on my boots and i remember what my mama said, she said
"son don't forget your roots" so i went back to where i came from and i started all over again but if you think you've seen the best of me, you better look out now my friendcause i got fire, fire, fire
shot up in my bones.
shot up in my bones.well i got lightning in my veins, thunder in my soul
and i'm bringing down the fire
fire
fire
fire
shot up in my bones
i got fire
fire
fire
shot up in my bones.
i got fire, fire, fire shot up in my bones.
