

Every Little Bit of My Heart

Az Yet

Girl, I always think about it 24/7
Can't get it outta my mind
I want so bad to be with you Baby, when I dream about it
It feels like heaven
Why you gotta be so fine?
I want so bad to be in you I'm longing, girl, to tell you
'Bout the visions in my head
You never will be lonely
Long as roses are red You should never worry
My intentions, they are true
The only thing that matters is you 'Cause I love you, and I want you
And I can't be without
I swear there's no doubt That I need you, I adore you
Every inch, every part
With every little bit of my heart Baby, I can think of 'bout a million reasons
Why you gotta be with me
My lovin' flows like endlessly Baby, we can go about a zillion places
What's your fantasy?
Just ask and girl, you shall receive I want so much to tell you
Girl, you'll never hurt again
Long as London Bridge keeps falling
Girl, just know I got your back Girl, there's no rhyme, no reason
'Bout the way I feel for you
The only thing that matters is you 'Cause I love you, and I want you
And I can't be without you
I swear there's no doubt That I need you, I adore you
Every inch, every part
With every little bit of my heart 'Cause I fell in love the day, baby
You came into my life
I've never been in love
So in love, so in love, so amazing
Changing everything I think about
And I don't want nobody else to have you 'Cause I love you, and I want you
And I can't be without
I swear there's no doubt That I need you, I adore you
Every inch, every part
With every little bit of my heart 'Cause I love you, and I want you
And I can't be without
I swear there's no doubt That I need you, I adore you

Every inch, every part
With every little bit of my heart 'Cause I love you, and I want you
And I can't be without
I swear there's no doubt That I need you, I adore you
Every inch, every part
With every little bit
