

Lucky One

Prince Royce

Breaking up is hard to do yeah
Everybody's doing it but me and you
If I had nothing but a dollar in my pocket
I'd spend it on you 'cause I know your love is priceless
Tell me where you wanna go, ho
I don't know how we'll get there
But we'll be close
I'll be your pillow, lay your head up on me, baby
There won't be no sleepless nights So I'm not afraid of losing our way
'Cause it's not an option, it's not a game
As they fall apart (they fall apart)
We reach for the stars
I know this, yeah baby No one compares, it's just not fair
To everyone that doesn't have you
Guess I'm the lucky one (guess I'm the lucky one)
I promise this, with every kiss, my heart's in this
Tell it to everyone (tell it to everyone)
That I'm the lucky one, yes, I'm the lucky one Listen
Everyday's a holiday, yeah
'Cause every time I think about you is
A sweet escape
I close my eyes and see you naked in my bedroom
That's just so sexy to me I'm not afraid (I'm not afraid)
Of losing our way
'Cause it's not an option, it's not a game
As they fall apart (they fall apart)
We reach for the stars (reach for the stars)
I know this, yeah That no one compares, it's just not fair
To everyone that doesn't have you
Guess I'm the lucky one (guess I'm the lucky one)
I promise this, with every kiss, my heart's in this
I'll tell it to everyone (tell it to everyone)
That I'm the lucky one, yes I'm the lucky one No one compares, it's just not fair
To everyone that doesn't have you (doesn't have you baby)
Guess I'm the lucky one (guess I'm the lucky one) (baby)
I promise this, with every kiss, my heart's in this
Tell it to everyone (tell it to everyone)
That I'm the lucky one (yes I'm the lucky one)
