

Neverland

Lauren Moscato

I dream of a world
Far beyond my imagination
The journey is long
But I'm not far from my destination
There's voices in this room of a boy who lost his shadow
Am I sleeping or awake?
He knows a place where I'll never grow old
Wont you take me tonight?
Don't worry mom and dad I'll be alright
Take me to Neverland
Teach me to fly
Wont you hold my hand?
I wanna be a kid again
Where happiness will never end
I want this forever
Just you and I
Once upon a time
What a great sight to see
But it's not a place for lost boys to be
Wont you come home with me?
This is only temporary
There's so much more
To discover through life's stages
But I'm just a girl who loves a boy that never ages
Wont you take me tonight?
Don't worry mom and dad I'll be alright
Take me to Neverland
Teach me to fly
Wont you hold my hand?
I wanna be a kid again
Where happiness will never end
I want this forever
Just you and I
Once upon a time
Oh oh oh oh oh oh
I'm missing you my dear
Oh oh oh oh oh oh
I've grown older but

I still love you and I share your story of youth
But I'd give anything to see you again
Take me to Neverland
Teach me to fly
Wont you hold my hand?
I wanna be a kid again
Where happiness will never end
I want this forever
Just you and I
Once upon a time
