Machinae Supremacy

Knock yourself out pay attention
Do as you're told,
what all the others do Blindfold yourself and fall in Don't question, don't think Don't existThe truth is too real for you
It fucks up the picture, right?
Don't wanna believe, don't wanna see cause reality is the enemyA setting born from censored pictures on TV
A world constructed from an R-Rated realityIt's so simple just to fall in line
Do as you're told,
what all the others do
Don't fix what's wrong, just shine what's neat
Don't question, don't think Don't even open your mouthThe truth is too ...A setting born from censored pictures on TV
A world constructed from an R-Rated reality
Each story cut to fit the screen and public eye Transformed to fit inside your fragile little mindIt's far too...Unquestioned certainty, a blinded faith in authority and trust that will keep you subjugatedIt's far too...
