

Protect Me You

Sonic Youth

Protect me from ravagement
I'm ten years old
I don't know what I do
Protect me myself I'm fourteen
There's nothing to do
Protect me yourself
I'm sixteen Protect me from starving
I'm eighteen
Protect me you
I don't know what you do Protect me demons
That come at night
I don't know what they say
They're whispering over Sends the night air away
And makes me forget
I hope they come
Again and again Huh they come
Again and again
I hope they come again
Again, again
