

Tangerine Sky

Blackbird Blackbird

Say goodbye to a tangerine sky say hello say hello to tomorrow- when you say goodbye
To a tangerine sky you lose your pain lose your fear lose your sorrow What if you were livin yours instead of hatin mine findin truth and spreadin love and searchin
Deep inside see me glidin swiftly to that place I need to be that home grown irie zone
 Harvesting my seeds I'm gonna live my life from day to night with no hesitation Make the best of every situation that I find myself placed in Decidin right from wrong, choosing my final destination Cause when it's said and done, it's just yourself that you are facin' Say goodbye to a tangerine sky say hello say hello to tomorrow- when you say goodbye to a
Tangerine sky you lose your pain lose your fear lose your sorrow Say say
 Say good-bye to tomorrow
 Wash your sorrow
 Live and learn
 Listen up and follow
 Do what you so let me rock it
 I be dammed if you think you gonna stop it
 Popo it drop it d-loc get up on it
 Don't you think your sink cause you can't call it
 I be the one that balled you up in college
Killa cross just brake you down kottonmouth kings on the radio now Make you think when you see my face d-loc with style and grace I wanna touch the sky unleash control wanna feel time travel real thru my soul wanna ride real High wanna lay real low independent free thought control my zone my zones full blown like a Plant full grown transform myself thru this microphone hold up .change that tone johnny Richter come thru with your baritone It's time to open up your eyes and catch sight
Cause you could wake up in the morning, and not make it to the night
 Take advantage of your life, you only get one try
 You gonna be satisfied today if tonight you died?
 Well I'm not that guy, I keep my blood runnin'
 You say you've had enough, and I say keep it comin
Now you're bummed because you're done and you're left all alone Should've known livin blown you'd end up like a clone whaat! Say goodbye to a tangerine sky say hello say
 hello to tomorrow- when you say goodbye to a
Tangerine sky you lose your pain lose your fear lose your sorrow It's not a place on any map it's kaya meditation that home grown herbal zone peaceful Medication at peace no understandin no condition but love at peace all accepting to the sky above Say goodbye to a tangerine sky say hello say hello to tomorrow- when you say goodbye to a Tangerine sky you lose your pain lose your fear lose your sorrow
