Careless

RaeLynn

A relationship is a 50/50 thing
I don't wanna be the girl always givin' in to ya
Same old same, it's a daily train
Waiting on your ring, it's just a losing gameI don't wanna pick up, but then I pick up
I don't wanna give up, should I give up?
It's just a chase, a Tom and Jerry race
Will it, will it ever, ever change?I bet if I turn this heart off, baby, it would turn you on
I bet if I blocked you,
You'd be blowin' up my bestfriend's phone
I bet you'd be on your knees, on that floor
If I said "get lost," if I slammed that door
Maybe if I cared less, maybe if I cared less
You would care a little moreIf I had a hand that didn't want a ring
You wouldn't be cool with a five month fling
Yeah, what we had is just a rush
Yeah, just a touch, but not enough
I laid my heart out, and then you wigged out
I gave my all to you, but if I said "see ya,"
Just like that, you'd be back all
Lookin' sad, tryin' to lastI bet if I turn this heart off, baby, it would turn you on
I bet if I blocked you
You'd be blowin' up my bestfriend's phone
I bet you'd be on your knees, on that floor
If I said "get lost," if I slammed that door
Maybe if I cared less, maybe if I cared less
You would care a little more
Oh, a little more, yeah, yeah, yeahMaybe I should care less, and be careless
Maybe I should care less, and be careless
Maybe I should care less, and be carelessI bet if I turn this heart off, baby, it would turn you on
I bet if I blocked you
You'd be blowin' up my bestfriend's phone
I bet you'd be on your knees, on that floor
If I said "get lost," if I slammed that door
Maybe if I cared less, maybe if I cared less
You would care a little more
Oh, a little more
