

Bridge of Death

Manowar

Slowly crossing as the river runs below
Never stopping for what's waiting soon will show
And this the last time looking back I'll see my home
For he awaits me reaching for my soul He calls my name, and waves me on The fallen one he stands in flame, oh Well, the life that he has given full of riches and success
Has a price that I made good in blood to pay
And the light he now is showing
To guide my every footstep is insurance if I falter on my way And what God has now forsaken and man has never seen
Are the riches of the underworld below
All my years of earthly pleasures gave support unto the bridge
I now cross it giving him my soul Dark Lord, I summon thee
Demanding the sacred right to burn in hell
Ride up on hells hot wind
Face one more evil than thou Take my lustful soul, drink my blood as I drink yours
Impale me on the horns of death
Cut off my head release all my evil
Lucifer is king praise Satan I know the one who waits Satan is his name
Across the bridge of death there he stands in flame
I know the one who waits Satan is his name
Across the bridge of death there he stands in flame He is my provider as I walk into the void
For eternity I give him my soul
I shall do his bidding obey him without question
Even walk among the living if I'm told Satan don't forsake me I wait for you to take me
Grant me wings and as your messenger I'll fly
