

Dust and Guilt

Arsis

Sensations
Curse me and my ways
Force
Feed me blind on empty days Today
My faith was lost again
A grave was dug
To mourn its loss And in this grave
I keep my friends
Loneliness impure urges
And the pain that only I can bring A mouthful of dust and guilt
A season of haste and wilt And to this day
I'll search for you
To nurse and clean
My mouthful of dust and guilt Come forever, come blindness
Come bringing forth
The pain of logic and reason
That hides in here And for my dreams, I'll pay dearly
Forfeit my rights to see clearly
Your flaws, my flaws
In all of our ways
