No Bed of Roses

Lynch Mob

You made your first mistake, the way you let me down
You're always on the make, honey
Fire burning in my soul, it cuts me deep inside
Talkin' like you just don't care, you know that ain't right'Cause I've had enough of walkin' out that door
I've realized you'll never change
Never said it'd be no bed of roses
You know all through the love an' painYou keep me hanging on
You keep me hanging on
All out of reasons of you wastin' my time
And takin' my pride, to me oh, you'll never changeYou were the one to blame, you set my soul to flame
Comin' on like potion that shows me love and brings me pain
Tearin' out my heart inside is how you get your kicks, get your kicks
But I'm just your lover junkie, girl, I need your fix, ooh yeah'Cause I've had enough of walkin' out that door
I've realized you'll never change
Never said it'd be no bed of roses
You know all through the love an' painYou keep me hangin' on
You keep me hangin' on
All out of reasons of you wasting my time
And takin' my pride, to me, oh, you'll never, never change'Cause I've had enough of those lost when all alone
I've realized, yeah, through love an' pain
Never said it'd be no bed of roses
You know all through the love an' painYou keep me hangin' on
You keep me hangin' on
All out of reasons of you wasting my time
And takin' my pride, you know I never thought it'd be that wayYou keep me hangin' on
Never said it'd be no bed of roses
Yeah, you know you'll never change your ways
Alright, alright
