It's Almost Over

This Rigid Empire

Underrated and it's so clear
I know that I'm the victim
So determined, I crush my fear
We don't stand a chance against them

When you wake up scared at night
Think of me in times of fright
When you're alone you see this
And it makes you feel like someone else
Your scared of yourself

Like blazing metal it struck my brain
I will not be the victim
These lies surround us like acid rain
We have a chance to strike back
Pull the trigger and walk away
We'll be there in the distance
No time to run, this ends today
You can't fail. It's almost over.

The battle is almost won
Told you it wouldn't be any fun
Let's take this one for the team
You say â€œYouâ€™re Sorryâ€• doesnâ€™t mean a thing
