

Undying Need to Scream

Dillon

Don't know what to say
But it must get out
Won't you stick around
As I try to think out loud I know that you
Can't handle the truth
Inside of me
The undying need to scream I tried it with laughter
With anxiety
I've tried it with you
Now I must scream(scream) This must end here
Before I lose my voice over you This must end here
Before I lose myself in you
