Mal Hablado

you might think i found another lady but no ones ever loved me like you do.(d salas on the track) you might think i found another lady but i swear to god im still inlove with yooooouuuu?you might think that i found another lady but my heart still belongs to you baby. im sorry mija for the things that i said n the things i felt with you i never felt them again (hell nah). was it your smile that made my cloudy days a sunshine? your gentle kisses or the fact that your so fine.? no one could ever take away what i feel for you no other women could ever fill your shoes. cuando pienso en ti yo siento el amor (el amor) porque tu tienes las llabes a mi corazon. digan lo que digan no les ago caso, espero el dia que regreses a mis brazos. the thought of you coming back sends chills down my spine, the same chills i get when i look deep in your eyes. dont you see (girl) that your my only one. till this do, yo i havent found another one.you might think that i found another lady (another lady) but no ones ever loved me like you do (theres no one like you). you might think i found another lady (another lady) but i swear to god im still inlove with yoooooou?

i lost you mi amor and ive never been the same (no no) i fell inlove with dark clouds and the rain i found a way to get rid of all my pain (pain) but sometimes my feelings never change (never change) they say to forget about somebody to kiss, caress and love another mami. but that just wasnt good enough for me (hell nah) i dont need another women to set me free. si no puedo tenerte junto a mi lo que sea quiero recordar las cosas que senti (yeah) esos momentos especiales que compartimos el amor apassionado que tuvimos. all the good times the giggles and the laughs are the main reason why im feeling sad. ill set you free with a dream of you returning, but im still here suffering and hurting.you might think i found another lady (another lady) but no ones ever loved me like you do (theres no one like you). you might think i found another lady (another lady) but i swear to god im still inlove with yooooooouuu?[D Salas]:
