One Perfect Something

Edgewater

She says
She's sick of all the things that fall
And she makes
No sense tonight, her mind's alright and age sets in'Cause she's pushing away
Her flight of life
It's out reflecting
A thousand miles of lightJust one person
Just one wrong or right
Just one perfect
Just one way, just one way
Just one way, just one wayShe's pushing away
Her flight of life
It's out reflecting
A thousand miles of lightJust one person
Just one wrong or right
Just one perfect
Just one way, just one way
Just one way, just one wayCould we Compromise just once?
Could we
Compromise just once, once, once?She says
She's sick of all the things that fall
And she breaks
The silence to the world she hates'Cause there's just one person for me
Just one wrong or right
Just one perfect something
Just one way, just one way
Just one way, just one way
Just one way, just one wayJust one perfect
Just one perfect
