Twilight Innocence

Novembers Doom

I wonder what she dreams about?
Perhaps my arms that hold her tight?
Or the love that warms her heart?
Peaceful sleep till dawns new dayI will always keep watch over you
To keep you safe when you are scaredBefore her sleep, she lies awake
With wonder and angelic thought
So much to learn in one lifetime
Hand in hand well walk for hoursWhen the water becomes to deep
Ill be the one who pulls you freeYour dreams Inspire me to be the best man I can be
To never let you down and make you proud of me
Someday youll be on your own
Memories will make you smile
Think back to those dreams to remember meI wonder what she dreams about?
Perhaps my arms that hold her tight?
Or the love that warms her heart?
Peaceful sleep till dawns new dayI will always keep watch over you
To keep you safe when you are scared
