

The Eye Collector

Krypteria

Hello, lovely, here I come
A fairy tale has just begun
It's a dream you never had
Time for you to go to bed, sleep wellHello, lovely, here I am
Come with me, my little lamb
45, the number's fine
Be a good girl, don't decline, don't declineHello, lovely, time to go
I'll make you the star of my little show
45, the number's good
Take one last bow, I think you shouldQuadraginta et quinqueHello, lovely, time is up
The fairy tale book's just been shut
And the dream you thought you had Turned out to be real insteadQuadraginta et quinqueHello, lovely, follow me
Step into my parlor please
Take a slice, I must insist
Come inside now, don't resist, don't resistHello, lovely, here we go
I'll take you to places nobody knows
45, the number's sweet
Now close your eyes and come with meFollow me, follow me, follow meQuadraginta et quinqueCould it be?
Another clock?
Tickety toc, tick tickatoc
It ain't over, you were wrong
And the game goes on
