

Stop the Rain

Osvaldo Supino

At the end of the lonely sidewalk
I'm caught up by the truth I run from,
And I stop as my tears begin to rain, uuh
I can feel how my heart is breaking
I can feel I'm slowly giving in
As the pain's coming up like the skyfall
Oh, no Please stop the rain 'cause the rain won't let the sky
It's drowning me down as my heart beats
Will you save, will you help me?
To survive another day, just another day
Will you hold me? Will you let me?
To survive another day?
Please, STOP THE RAIN! I've tried to create my freedom,
You've been the worst of a silent prison
I thought you pretend I'm doing fine
Oh, no
I've been strong but I feel so hollow,
Don't know how to face tomorrow now
'Cause I'm running out of hope to hold on to
Oh no So, please stop the rain 'cause the rain won't let the sky
It's drowning me down as my heart beats
Will you save, will you help me?
To survive another day, just another day!
Will you hold me? Will you let me?
To survive another day?
Please, STOP THE RAIN! Who could blame you
If you leave me alone?
'Cause we're like strangers
But I need you now! (x2)
Please stop the rain 'cause the rain won't let the sky
It's drowning me down as my heart beats
Will you save, will you help me?
To survive another day, just another day
Will you hold me? Will you let me?
To survive another day?
Please, STOP THE RAIN!
