

Burning .44

Chuckanut Drive

Hello my, my lord
hello my lord don't you try 'n take me yet.

Cause i've tried, tried hard
well i've tried hard but you know i can't forget.

As he walks, walks free
as he walks free through the streets of this old town.

And if you know, know all
if you know all you know he took my baby down.

I'm goin' down to the cemetery, i'm gonna dig myself a hole
as deep enough to bury a man and his soul.

I'm gonna fill that hole by midnight, and guessin' that you know in an alley without streetlights with this burnin' 44.

I wanna look him in the eye, and i will take away his sunrise
i'm wanna strip him off his pride, just like he did mine.

Hello my, my lord
hello my lord don't you try 'n take me yet.

Cause i've tried, tried hard
well i've tried hard but you know i can't forget.

I wanna look him in the eye, and i will take away his sunrise
i'm wanna strip him off his pride, just like he did mine.
