Give Me Tonight

Shannon

Walking sadly through the park
I hear crying in the darkness
And thought I act like I cannot hear
Their situation is very clear
A girl who's trying to tell her guyThe time has come that they say, "Goodbye"
And his answer tears my heart apart
Give me tonight
then if you don't wanna stayGirl, I'll just forget you You'll see I'm right you won't get to go away
Love ain't gonna let you
Walking with you through the parkNow it's my voice in the darkness
Just like the girl trying to tell her guyI'm telling you
We must say "Goodbye"
I can't believe when I hear once more
The very words that were said before
Come from deep within your broken heartGive me tonight
Then if you don't wanna stay
I'll give you one night
Give me tonight
Then if you don't wanna stayI'll get you one more night
Give me tonight, give me tonight
Give me tonight, give me tonight
Give me tonight, give me tonightHis voice echoes in the darkness
Give me tonight
Then if you don't wanna stayYes, I'll give you one more night
Give me tonight
Then if you don't wanna stay
