English

Tonight, tonight is the night, our time that we waited for so long Tonight, tonight is the night,
the night when we will become one like a dream

It was frustrating to be in a world that doesnâ€™t go my way
The eyes that I felt behind me were so cold Yeah, Iâ€™m not able, I canâ€™t do it, just as I was about to quit
You suddenly appeared before me

The starlight that shines brightly from far away,
the wind that knocks on my shoulders
It all shines on me and I dream once again
The sun that will rise tomorrow morning is for us
We tightly hold hands
and it raises me up so I can sing again

Tonight, we feelinâ€™ so high, high to the sky, fly fly fly, fly without end

Once more high-five, we wonâ€™t die, like an ugly doll on the shelf, we wonâ€™t cry All together, get up, stand up, donâ€™ tbe shy, weâ€™re all the main characters, donâ€™t go home early

The starlight that shines brightly from far away,
the wind that knocks on my shoulders
It all shines on me and I dream once again

The sun that will rise tomorrow morning is for us
We tightly hold hands
and it raises me up so I can sing again

Feels good, close your eyes Feels good, what do you see?
Feels good, thatâ€™s you, itâ€™s alright, oh yeah

Turn it up, burn it up
It all shines on me and I dream once again

The starlight that shines brightly from far away,
the wind that knocks on my shoulders
It all shines on me and I dream once again
The sun that will rise tomorrow morning is for us
We tightly hold hands
and it raises me up so I can sing again

Everything has changed Tonight as Iâ€™m with you Dazzling and beautiful, tonight is the night
