The Grass Keeps Right On Growin'

Perry Como

The grass keeps right on growin'
the sun goes right on shinin'
there are apples on the apple tree ain't life a funny thing, flowers bloom an' birds still sing an'
everything's the same except for me . . .Everything's the same except for me . . .
because, you're gone . . .
I tell myself you're really gone
How can it be, but there it is,
I'm alone once again . . .An' life goes on without your smile I knew so well the secrets that we used to tell yesterday way back when?And . . . the grass keeps right on growin'
the sun goes right on shinin'
the skies are blue the way they used to be ain't life a funny thing, kids play tag an' church bells ring an'
everything's the same except for me . . .Everything's the same except for me . . .
'cause, you're not there . . .
I look for you but you're not there I hear your voice , it's just a trick that my mind wants to play . . .
How can this world keep turnin' like it used to do?
There's no more world, there's no more you, no more words left to say . . .And . . . the grass keeps right on growin'
the sun goes right on shinin'
there are apples on the apple tree ain't life a funny thing, flowers bloom an' birds that sing an'
everything the same except for me . . .. . . everything's the same except for me . . .Words and Music by Gloria Shayne
